

Head Coach-JJ Riehl

J.J. Riehl enters her fourth season as head coach of the St. Edward's University women's basketball team. Under Riehl's direction, the Hilltoppers have won more games in the first three seasons than any other staff in program history. During the 2014–2015 season, the Hilltoppers went 15-12, producing the second-most single win season in the past 15 years. St. Edward's also saw its first trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, following its Heartland Conference Tournament Championship and a 19-9 record. Riehl is establishing a culture of success, as her program has attended three-straight Heartland Conference Tournaments.

Riehl's roots tie deep into the hilltop, as she served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons. While assisting, she played an instrumental role in the program's sole conference championship (2005–2006), six consecutive conference tournament appearances stretching from 2006 to 2011, 24 all-conference players, one conference Player of the Year, one Defensive Player of the Year and two professional players.

Riehl also played collegiate basketball at St. Edward's, arriving on the hilltop in 1998. She was a three-year starter, two-year captain, two-time all-conference honoree, and she led her team to an NAIA Championship appearance. Riehl is listed in the record books 11 times, most notably for scoring over 1,000 points and for placing herself No. 1 all-time in career three-point field goal percentage. Riehl was recognized as a member of the St. Edward's University Women's Athletics All-Era Team in 2010.

Riehl received her bachelor's degree in Kinesiology in 2002 and earned her Master of Human Services with a Sports Management concentration in 2004, both from St. Edward's.

During his time, Miner appeared in 77 games, tallied 281 points (3.6 ppg), and knocked down 43 career three-pointers.
